

Romantic Side of Life

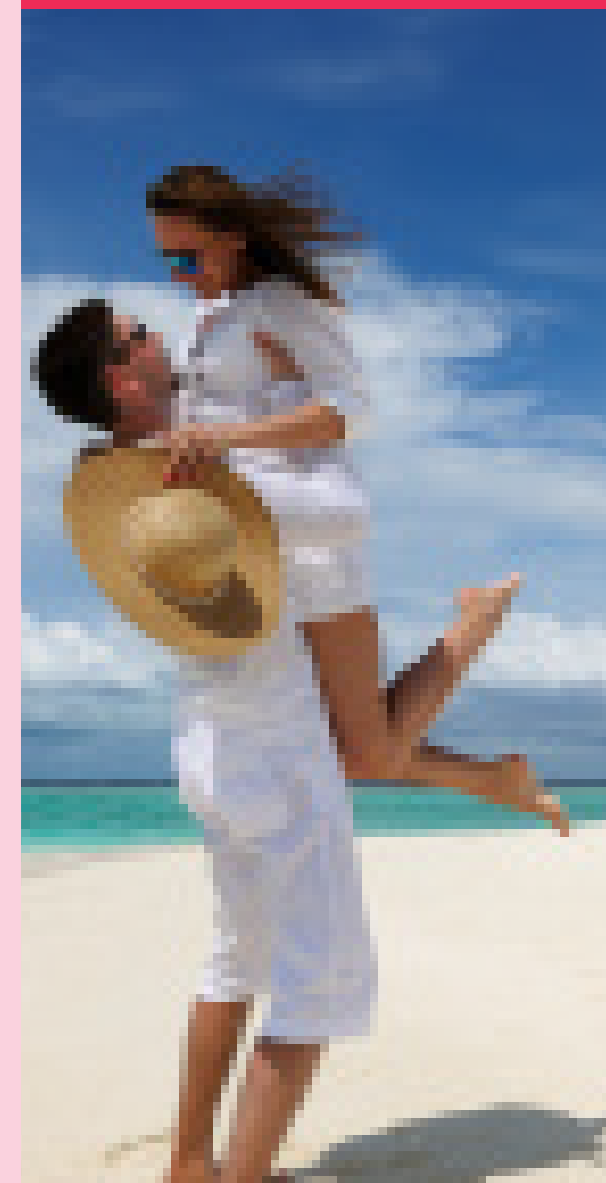

Sandbanks are like wondrous pearls surrounded by beautiful turquoise waters, and will guarantee you and your significant other delightful moments without the intrusion of other people. Almost all resorts offer dinners or breakfasts on the sandbanks that surround the resort island, and you can enjoy yourself with chilled drinks and melodious sounds of the waves gently hugging the beach that surrounds you.

Wellness, relaxation, and health can also be achieved by doing yoga, which is a journey to find the inner peace within yourself. Our resorts offer private yoga sessions to couples, and individuals who seek to increase their awareness of the body and the cosmos surrounding them. Some Yoga spas are situated in hearing distance of the tranquil sounds of waves, and other natural sounds which increases the sense of relaxation, and helps harmonise your breathing with the rhythm of nature itself.

Private excursions alone or together with your spouse, such as snorkeling and turtle touring are also offered, where you can witness the miracles of nature with your loved ones, and be awed by the rich and exquisite colors of the diverse marine life in Maldives, which would surely stir deep-set emotions within yourselves.

In addition to this, dinners set under the mysteriously alluring stars, that wink down at you from indescribable heights, increases the sense of privacy and help you unwind with your significant other after a long, exhilarating day. With no interruptions from the staff, or anyone, you and your partner can lose yourselves in each other. Love blooms anew and you will be captivated by your spouse under the blanket of the stars, as you while the night away together in seclusion.

You can also immortalize your moments together by opting for private photo-shoots that will help you capture the precious memories in beautiful pictures that can become your treasure. Create an album, scrapbook, or photobook of your time together, which would enable you to remember the good times for the rest of your life. Let these memories become a balm for your life later, and help you and your loved remember the vows, love, and times you spent together promising to be there for each other forever.

Renewal of Vows and Celebrations

Getting a second chance to experience one of the most poignant and prominent days of your lives is a true blessing. Here in the charming and picturesque islands of Maldives, married couples are welcome to renew the sacred vows that they have made to each other, or simply celebrate the passing of another year as a couple.

The renewal of vows is an important and delightful ceremony, where the bride and groom are offered various services in order to ensure that the event is as delightful as possible. Some resorts offer a pre-wedding bath ceremony and spa experience that is meant to rejuvenate and relax the couple before the actual event. The bride and groom are offered pre-wedding cocktails as well as traditional attire for the ceremony if they prefer.

The ceremony can be held at private beaches, pavilions, or sandbanks depending on the choice of the resort. Some resorts also offer sophisticated and stylish indoor venues for the couple to conduct their ceremony.

The bride is usually accompanied by a traditional bodu beru procession, and the ceremony is overseen by a master of ceremonies, while you say your vows surrounded by the breathtaking view of the natural beauty and grace that is Maldives. The resort provides the bride with a gorgeous bouquet of exotic and local flowers, and an elegant ceremonial certificate for the wedding is also given to the couple. The couple can enjoy a wedding cake and some delectable drinks and luscious appetizers after the ceremony, reveling and luxuriating in each other's company.

After the ceremony, where the couple is showered with the affection, good will, and auspicious wishes of the staff, they will be left alone to enjoy the sunset, by taking them on a sunset cruise, or each other's company, by setting up a candlelight dinner for them. The couple can come to their villa or room to find it splendidly decorated with candles and flowers, ensuring that the mood is set for an intoxicatingly passionate night.

This exceptional day is made even more memorable by the photography service provided by the resorts. Couples can opt for a quaint and pretty amateur session, or hire a professional photographer to capture the beauty of their inseparability along with natural splendor of the Maldivian islands. Some resorts also provide the services of a professional photographer under their weddings package, ensuring that the jewels of your memories are preserved and returned to you. Some resorts also provide the option to video the lovely ceremony, so that the couple can return home with transcendent memories to share with their families.

The wedding package also offers special honeymoon amenities the following day, and couples can choose to relax at the resort or take part in more exciting excursions in order to enjoy their stay to the fullest. Upon departure, the resort offers special gifts for the couple, ensuring that their stay remains imprinted in their memories forever.

The renewal of vows can double as an anniversary celebration, when a special milestone in your married lives is reached. The packages for renewal of wedding vows are available at various resorts at a price range of USD 1500 to USD 3000, with additional tax charges. In addition to the wedding ceremony, some resorts also offer various exciting excursions, and private activities that can truly help you connect with your spouse, and appreciate their importance in your lives. So, do not hesitate to come to Maldives in order to celebrate momentous longevity of your marriage.

Special Honeymoon elements/ Special Surprises

Marriage is one of the biggest celebrations of life. The meeting of two souls in order to become one, and spending the rest of your life together might be daunting, but is rewarding and fulfilling as well. The precious island resorts of Maldives, with its many natural blessings have some of the most ideal locations to spend such auspicious beginnings of your new life. Before going back to the various hurdles and stresses of your life together, why not enjoy each other's company without any distractions.

Our resorts make an extra effort in making your honeymoon trip as romantic and charming as possible by offering you special turndown services, and a range of delightful drinks upon your arrival. Starting from the exciting and bubbly tastes of Champagne, some resorts go as far as to surprise their guests with rich, heady, and quality wines.

Guest may also enjoy special candlelight dinners provided during your stay at different exotic locations that guarantee you 100% privacy. This dreamy dinner may include a delectable cake, and a gorgeous array of local and exotic flowers, making your nights intoxicating and memorable. Prior to attending such wonderful dinners, guests may take part in a relaxing and stimulating bath ceremony.

Private meals are not limited only to dinners, as some resorts go as far as to provide breakfast on remote uninhabited islands and tiny sandbanks surrounded by the sparkling sea. Such breakfasts are usually followed with private snorkeling trips that would enable the couple to experience the opulent and glamorous marine life, which is the highly valued lifeline and treasure trove of our little country.

In addition to this, honeymooners may enjoy various spa services, ranging from 10-minutes shoulder massages, to 50-minutes couple massages where you can feel the stress of your lives melt away together with your spouse. You can enjoy the subtle sense of equilibrium and experience the centering of your minds and bodies around each other while rejuvenating yourselves.

Nothing spells romance like witnessing the sunset, showcasing the fiery colors of the sky fading into the darkness of the night. Watching them together with your spouse symbolizes the continuity of your lives together, promising inseparability through light and dark. As such, guests can enjoy viewing the spectacular dance of the colors meeting the watery horizons on the sunset cruise offered by the resorts to honeymoon couples on request.

Consequently, various resorts also offer a variety of excursions for couples, including turtle touring, private beach walks, safaris, and photo-shoots. Couples who wish to experience a more exhilarating and active honeymoon can opt to participate in the various water sports as well.

Some resorts even offer a special honeymoon certificate, in order to memorialize the prominence of the beginning of your romantic journey together, wishing you love and togetherness. Other special surprises offered to honeymooners include, but is not limited to exquisitely decorated fruit baskets, exceptional departure gifts, private yoga classes, welcome flower garlands, and breakfasts in bed.

So choose Maldives as the landmark where you start the rest of your life, and allow us to make your stay as immaculate and breathtaking as possible. While some resorts have different honeymoon packages depending on the seasons, some resorts prefer to include honeymoon amenities in their various packages. As such, resorts require a valid marriage certificate of at least 3 months from the couple in order to provide such services free of charge as a complementary package to all honeymooners.

Privacy

Awarded with various Most Romantic Destination Awards, our resorts in Maldives provide numerous activities that ensure your privacy, whether you come as a couple or alone. This is due to the fact that Maldives is geographically created in such a way that privacy can be ensured, whether it is on the surrounding sandbanks, or the private beaches screened from prying eyes by the lush green foliage.

Private Spas are available not only indoors, but out under the blanket of the lazily twinkling stars as well. Couples can enjoy sensual adventures of a bathing ritual, which includes aromatic flower petals, and the soothing aroma of essential oils, specially designed to draw your fatigue away and help you reconnect with your partner.

You can also enjoy the wonder of gorgeous Maldivian sunsets, with your significant other, and immerse yourselves into your own little world, where the colors dance in rhythm to your heartbeats. Relish the solitude while witnessing such a spectacular array of colors, and spend time with your spouse, or yourself, becoming one with nature, and submerging in the peace of the twilight that follows. Such sunsets can be enjoyed at either a secluded corner of the island or while cruising for dolphins and taking part in various other excursions.
